Annexure-A

1. The empanelment of Consultants is a continuous process. This list shall be appended/amended as and when empanelment of Consultants is carried out by Ministry in future.
2. The Firm/team once empanelled shall remain valid for five years or till such time they continue to satisfy the terms & conditions of this empanelment and there is no material changes from their respective empanelment proposal, whichever is earlier.
3. In order to avoid conflict of interest, any firm associated with the Concessionaire of any of the project highway as its Design Consultant and / or Construction Supervision Consultant shall not be eligible to participate in the financial bidding for the same project, even after empanelment, at the project specific / RFP stage.
4. Those Consultants who were engaged by the MINISTRY or its implementing agencies for any project/black spot as Design Consultants for preparation of Detailed Project Reports or Supervision Independent Engineer or Consultant shall not be permitted to submit proposal for providing the consultancy services as Safety Consultant for the same project, even after empanelment at the project specific / RFP stage.
5. Consultants have an obligation to disclose any such situation factual or potential conflict that impacts their capacity to serve the best interest of MINISTRY, or that may reasonably be perceived as having this effect. Failure to disclose said situations may lead to disqualification/delisting of Consultant or the termination of its Contract and / or any other action as deemed fit by MINISTRY at any stage.
6. It is MINISTRY's policy that the Consultants observe the highest standard of ethics during the selection and execution of such contracts, if assigned work on the basis of competitive financial bid after empanelment. In pursuance of this policy, the MINISTRY:
 - (a) Defines, for the purpose of this paragraph, the terms set forth below as follows:
 - i. "Corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the selection process or in contract execution;
 - ii. "Fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation or omission of facts in order to influence a selection process or the execution of a contract;
 - iii. "Collusive practices" means a scheme or arrangement between two or more consultants with or without the knowledge of the client, designed to establish prices at artificial, non-competitive levels;

- iv. "Coercive practices" means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons or their property to influence their participation in a procurement process, or affect the execution of contract.
- b. Will reject a proposal for empanelment, if it determines that the Consultant recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices in competing for the contract in question;
- c. Will declare a firm ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time to be empanelled if at any time it determines that the firm has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing, a contract; and
- d. Will have the right to include a provision requiring consultants to permit the MINISTRY to inspect their accounts and records relating to the performance of the contract and to have them audited by authorized representatives of MINISTRY.
7. Consultants shall not be under a declaration of ineligibility for corrupt and fraudulent practices. Furthermore, the Consultants shall be aware of the provisions on fraud and corruption as stated above.
8. Consultants shall furnish information on commissions and gratuities, if any, paid or to be paid to agents relating to this proposal and during execution of the assignment, if the Consultant is empanelled.
9. Only empanelled consultants shall be allowed to participate in the financial bid. Work shall be assigned to a consultant on the basis of competitive financial bidding process.
10. It is specified herein that a single team comprising of key personnel as mentioned at Para 20.1 (I) of RFP shall not be eligible for award of more than six MINISTRY contract packages at any point of time.
- A firm shall also not be allowed to propose more than one team for the same MINISTRY contract package.
11. Information provided by the consulting firms will be verified through RTI or any other means and if any of the information provided by the consultant is found incorrect/false, then it may lead to rejection of a firm's proposal summarily at any stage even after empanelment or award of work. Firms/Personnel submitting false/incorrect information, or suppressing the information shall be debarred from empanelment for two years and shall not be eligible to participate in empanelling/bidding in any project of National Highways undertaken by MINISTRY.
12. Notwithstanding the formation of these panels the MINISTRY may go in for separate qualification for specific assignments, if it so decides.

13. If the applicant after empanelment changes its name, they may seek for incorporation of the change of name in the empanelled list with full documentary proof.
14. The firm/team once empanelled shall remain valid for 5 years or till such time they continue to satisfy the terms & conditions of this empanelment, whichever is earlier, and there is no material change from their respective empanelment proposal.
15. In case any member of the team is not available, fresh empanelment with a particular team would be required.
16. The empanelled firms shall be required to ensure timely completion of the safety consultancy services of the projects awarded to them in bid stage, in an effective manner strictly as per the contract. The performance appraisal of the safety consultant shall be carried out by the Road Safety Engineering Cell based on the report of the concerned Regional Officer. The firms shall be liable for cancellation of empanelment and debarment in the event of defaults attributable to the firm for non-timely completion/ poor performance of services, for a period of two years.
